Boatman Geller & The Silver Spoon Beach House

During the summer of 2007, Boatman Geller provided custom designed paper goods for the The Beach House, a two month relaxation destination hosted by The Silver Spoon. The Los Angeles based entertainment marketing company invited top celebrities, stylists and press to the house, which featured the 2007 "Summer Must Haves." Guests included Hilary and Haylie Duff, Jessica Simpson, Lindsey Lohan, Melissa and Joan Rivers and many more. Events for July and August included celebrity hosted barbecue's, baby showers, bridal showers and beach parties, as well as the filming of MTV's reality show "The Hill's" and the Oxygen Network's "Inn Love" featuring Tori Spelling and husband Dean McDermott.
