

Boatman Geller and The View!

We recently took part in an audience giveaway for ABC's The View, which aired on October 23rd. Expectant mom and co-host Elisabeth Hasselbeck enjoyed her last day before departing on maternity leave by showcasing her baby "must haves." All 188 pregnant audience members were the incredibly lucky recipients of several top-notch baby and mom gifts from the Jewels and Pinstripes celebrity "baby bump bag" – including adorable Boatman Geller luggage tags, stationery and stickers!

“What fun for us to be a part of this amazing audience giveaway for The View! The stationery, stickers and luggage tags were perfect items for all of the expecting moms.”
